

2017 All-American Junior Sheep Show Comes to Wisconsin!

The 24th Annual All American Junior Show will be held at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison, Wisconsin on June 29 – July 2, 2017. The All-American Show typically hosts over 2,000 head of sheep shown by over 350 exhibitors from throughout the nation. Even though many awards are given out over the course of the weekend the show is designed for and focuses on a fun-filled and educational weekend for junior exhibitors and their families. Exhibitors can participate in many events besides the breeding sheep and market lambs shows, events include a 3-on 3 basketball tournament, pizza party, skill-a-thon, judging contest, ice cream social, lamb camp for novice showman, wool show, Saturday night picnic, promotional contests, individual and team showmanship competitions and a scholarship programs. As the host of this event, Wisconsin will need many volunteers to help make this show a success. An organizational meeting will be held on Sunday, December 11, 2016 at 12:30 pm. The meeting will start at the Alliant Energy Center at Pavilion 2 where the group will take a short tour of the facility. Following the tour, a sit- down meeting will be held at the Lyman F Anderson Agriculture and Conservation Center: 5201 Fen Oak Drive, Madison, 53718 to discuss volunteer opportunities and organize committees for the show. People interested in attending the meeting, or who are unable to attend but would like to volunteer should e-mail Judy Schambow at highpt@hughes.net. The All-American Junior Show website and additional show information can be found at <http://www.countrylovin.com/AJSS/index.html>.